2022: A new year, a new beginning

Dear friends,

With what has happened over the past two years around the world, it's hard to predict how 2022 will be. I dare to hope that we have learned life lessons that will help us to better live our short passage on this planet!

This will require discipline and a personal commitment to ourselves and to others. We are often reminded that letting our guard down can have catastrophic effects. However, I still wonder if we have become wiser by living through all these bereavements. When I see all this garbage thrown here and there in the parks, the waste of food that still goes on, the lack of civic-mindedness in some, the verbal and physical violence that comes out in many ways, the efforts made to discourage people in their relationship with the divine, the tendency of several governments to appropriate powers that lead more and more towards an unprecedented authoritarianism; and so on, I doubt that as a people we have really grown in humanism.

For those who have taken the time to meditate and question the meaning of life during the long months of lockdown, surely a new wisdom has been anchored in their hearts. They saw God's merciful presence in the dedication of staff in various care homes. Gestures and actions of solidarity throughout the planet have reminded them that we are all from the same family, from the family of God. Is it not in love that we best see God among us? Are we going to live more in solidarity with others and the planet? Is it illusion or hope?

I also dare to hope that God will have a special place (His place) in our lives. Have we not learned that our lives are only a thread and that it is important to take advantage of each day to add a drop of love into the ocean of Love? Have we not learned that God is with us in our struggle for a better world? Have we learned anything?

Real Doucet, M.Afr.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING WITH YOUR LIFE? CHOOSE LOVE AND SERVICE...

A young person is often asked this question: What do you want to do with your life? At Rio, Pope Francis, during the World Youth Day reversed the question in this way: What does God want to do with your life?

Who we are

Founded in Algeria in 1868 and 1869 in order to meet the Africans, the Missionaries of Africa (White Fathers, White Sisters) are united by two drives: a passion for Jesus and a passion for the African world. We number a little above 2,000 members (priests, brothers, sisters and lay people) We are delighted that almost 500 young men and women from various countries and continents are at present in our houses of formation.

Our roots in the African world consists in learning the local language, a better understanding of their culture, the choice of living close to them in their time of joys and sorrows, to rejoice in the little human, professional and spiritual victories of the people we encounter. With these people, we discover the many ways of God being present to one and all. We learn all the time to serve and to love, since it makes us free.

Interested by Africa ?

If you feel challenged by these two passions and by our eagerness to take roots, if it stirs something deep in your heart, maybe we can go along some way together. Do you want to meet the Africans here in your own country, are you considering a life commitment at the service of the African world, then get in contact with us:

What we propose

We are present in 25 countries of Africa, and in the African world outside the continent, and even here in Canada. The aim of the Missionaries of Africa is to foster through actions and words “in the way of Jesus”, since Jesus is for us the person to encounter with each individual and with God. Our motivation is to extend the work of God in human history, as it is said in the Bible and through the Gospels.

If these few lines ring a bell, then get in contact with us to get a better understanding of how love makes us free. You will find in the last page of this calendar our addresses in Canada. Someone in each of our communities will give an answer as soon as possible, as I will do personally.

Serge St-Arneault, M.Afr.

With his cell phone, this man can communicate with the whole world. Like those who accompany him, he has surely heard of the birth of Christ, the Saviour of the world.
